IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Daddy, Mr. O. D. Carey, who passed away 4 years ago, Jan. 22, 1952.

Four years ago you left us,
So sad was that day.
God took you in his loving arms
And then turned out the light.

He said good-bye to no one,
His loving heart had ceased to be,
Before we knew he was gone.

He did not fall to do his best,
His heart was true and tender,
He worked hard for those he left,
And they ever will remember.

Some think that we are happy,
Because they see us smile;
But dear Daddy they will never know
How much we hurt inside.

— The Children.

CARD OF THANKS

AUCTION SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

The undersigned sole acting Special Commissioner, pursuant to authority vested in me under the terms of a certain decree entered in the December Term of 1955 of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Virginia in the chancery suit of The Bank of Appomattox vs. E. J. Paulette, et als, will sell to the highest bidder for cash, on FEBRUARY 1, 1956, at 2 P. M. in front of the Court House of Appomattox County, Virginia, the following property, to-wit:

All of that certain tract or parcel of real estate lying and being in Southside District of Appomattox County, about four (4) miles South of Appomattox Court House, near Promise Land Church and fronting on the old Chap and Red House Road and being on the west side of said road, and known as the G. W. George Chilton Tract of land and adjoining now or formerly the lands of Jim Driskall, Edgar Chilton, Nannie Harvey, Mrs. Adelia C. Ferguson, J. T. Myers and the land of W. H. Storn and A. W. Arrington, originally containing 150 acres, more or less, but now containing 65½ acres more or less. E. J. Paulette acquired said land by two deeds, one from J. R. Poe and wife of record in the Clerk's Office of Appomattox County in Deed Book 48, at Page 487, and the other from W. L. Moore to himself and J. R. Poe jointly, which is of record in said Clerk's Office of Appomattox County in Deed Book 42, at page 452.

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!

"As busy as bees." This could easily describe A. H. S. this week. Everyone seems to be busy. The annual staff is running around trying very hard to get the next shipment on time. They are almost pulling their hair out because the pictures for these pages have not yet arrived.

We find many other busy groups, too. The newspaper staff is working very long and hard hours setting the pages for this month's Commercial Comments.

The students serving as secretaries for the teachers are quite busy too, typing exams for their "employer."

To tell you the truth, the whole school is busy. Everyone is buzzing around getting ready for those exams next week!

The Appomattox Future Farmers of America has taken as a money-making project, planting seedlings. We wish you much success! They have also planned to have their annual Father-Son Banquet in March.

Two of our senior girls spent the week-end at Longwood College. They were Betty Mitchell and Ann Evans. They received the invitation for their visit from one of A. H. S.'s former students, Mary Alice Henry.

The ninth grade English class has started a study of parliamentary procedure. They set aside one day a week to study and practice. They seem to be enjoying this thoroughly.

Don't forget the Post - Exam Prance, January 27. This dance is put on by the Future Business Leaders of America and is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who wil serve as chaparones. It will start directly after the basketball game with Nelson County High School, here.

Have you been keeping up with our basketball teams? Then you should. Our next home game will be held tomorrow night, with New London in the gym. Be sure to be present.

Peggy.

NEW BOOK AT COUNTY LIBRARY

The Edge of The Sea, by Rachel Carson. —

"The edge of the sea is a strange and beautiful place. . . ." Thus the author of The Sea Around Us opens the door on another world: the world of teeming life where the sea meets the land. The book is divided into three main sections: The Rocky Shore, The Rim of Sand, The Coral Coast. These environments are found the world over. The book has a double purpose. It endeavors, through words and pictures, to lead the reader into an unknown world, to catch the evanescent beauty of a tide pool and tell the story of a grain of sand. It is a book to be read at any time or place. But it is also a practical guide to identification to take you to the shore; the superb, scientifically accurate drawings by Bob Hines enable the reader to identify many plants and animals at a glance.

4TH GRADE 4-H CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the fourth grade 4-H Club, of Miss Nola Burkey's room was held Thursday, January 12. Mr. J. A. Smith, county agent, presided. Jars for killing insects were prepared. Mr. Smith discussed preparing an exhibit for the county at fairs.

Home Agent's Notes

By Mrs. B. G. Anderson

It's Better With Butter

Our great grandmothers knew butter was indispensable for their famed cooking. So do the finest cooks today. Recipes old, recipes new, from around the world produce a distinctive result with butter.

With canned vegetables in plentiful supply from the market, now is a particularly good time to serve them with interesting butter sources which will add both enjoyment and nutritional value.

Melt 3 tablespoons butter. stir in 1 1-2 cups fine dry bread crumbs. Cook over low heat until crumbs are browned. Serve over asparagus. 2-3 cups grapenuts may be substituted for bread crumbs. This is called buttered crumbs.

Lemon butter sauce — melt 1-2 cup butter (1 stick) in saucepan over very low heat. Stir constantly to keep from foaming. This will give clear, unclouded butter. To melted butter, add 1 tablespoon of chopped parsley and 2 tablespoons fresh or bottled lemon juice. Serve at once in butter bowl with ladle or spoon directly over hot cooked vegetable.

Amandine Sauce for Vegetables —melt 1-4 cup butter and saute (lightly fry) 1-4 cup shredded almonds in it until they become slightly browned. Serve over asparagus. Enough for six servings.

Mushroom butter sauce — melt 1-4 cup butter in skillet. Add 1-4 pound fresh mushrooms which have been cleaned and sliced. Sprinkle with salt, cover, and simmer 5 to 10 minutes until mushrooms are tender. Pour over 6 servings of any hot, drained cooked vegetable.

Other seasonings which may be used with butter for vegetables are: chives, parsley, garlic, celery seed and any other fresh or dry herbs. Chopped fresh mint is often combined with melted butter and served over cooked new peas.

Hollandaise Sauce — if green vegetables are spurned by your family when served plain, you may find them persuasive when dressed up with Hollandaise sauce. Here is a relatively simple recipe for Hollandaise. Follow the recipe carefully:

Melt 1-2 cup butter (1-4 pound) over gentle heat. While butter is melting, beat 2 egg yolks until thick. Mix in 1-2 teaspoon salt and a dash of Cayenne. Then beat in 3 tablespoons of the melted butter until well mixed and stiff. Continue beating and add 1 1-2 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice and the rest of the melted butter, a few drops of each alternately, until all has been added. If you add the lemon juice and melted butter too rapidly, your sauce will lose body and go thin again. This makes 1 cup of sauce.

To use Hollandaise sauce, heat it in top part of double boiler over hot water, stirring constantly. Serve at once on hot broccoli or other greens. For company meals, you may make the sauce early in the day, and then heat and serve when desired.

Always remember in keeping butter, to keep it clean, cold and covered to protect its delicate flavor and texture.

Some other sauces which will help liven up meals in the cold busy days ahead follow.

This white sauce:- 1 cup ' milk, 1 tablespoon flour and 1 tablespoon fat. Melt fat, blend in flour and stir in cold milk. Cook slowly until thickened. Good for cream soup, creamed and scalloped vegetables, eggs, fish and meat.

Medium white sauce:- 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons fat. Make and use same as thin white sauce.

Thick white sauce:- 1 cup milk, 3 to 4 tablespoons flour, 3 to 4 tablespoons table fat. Make as other white sauces and use as binder for croquettes and for souffles. Add salt and other seasonings to taste in all sauces.

Cheese Sauce:- Add 1 cup grated cheese to 1 cup hot medium white sauce. Heat and stir only until cheese is melted.

Egg Sauce:- Stir 2 cups chopped hard-cooked eggs and 2 tablespoons lemon juice to 1 1-2 cups thin or medium white sauce.

Tomato Sauce: Heat 2 cups tomatoes with 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 chopped onion, small piece bay leaf and 2 cloves. Cook 20 minutes. Sieve. Blend 2 tablespoons melted fat with 2 tablespoons flour and stir in tomato mixture. Cook over low heat, stirring until thickened.

Spanish Sauce:- Add 1-2 cup of finely chopped green pepper to tomato sauce and heat.
